Warſaw, Aug. 6. N. S.

WE expect by the next Letters from Lemberg, to receive an account of the King of Poland's arrival at that Place. We hear, ſome Diſorder happened lately among his German Forces, which obliged them to Halt for a day or two; but the Authors of it having been puniſhed, and the Tumult being appeaſed, they continued their march to the General Rendezvous; where, it's believed they will arrive about the middle of this month. The Envoys of Moldavia and Wallachia are returned home, and will take their way through the Province of Tranſilvania, to avoid falling into the Hands of the Tartars, whom they already look upon as their Enemies; thoſe Provinces having reſolved to withdraw themſelves from their Subjection to the Ottoman Port, and to put themſelves under the Protection of this Crown. Our Advices from Lithuania ſay, The late Engagement between General Sapieha's Son, and the Sieur Oginsky, was not ſo Bloody, as it was at firſt reported, the latter, with a great number of his Followers, being fled into the Territories of the Elector of Brandenburg in Pruſſia; where, when the Forces of Sapieha would have purſued them, they were met by ſome of the Elector's Officers, who deſired their Commander to forbear committing any Hoſtilities within his Electoral Highneſs's Dominions; upon which they retreated without doing any farther Damage. An Order from the King of Poland has been publiſhed in Lithuania, ſetting forth; That, ſince all occaſions of Complaint are taken away, by the Agreement lately made at Warſaw, and by the Grant Stipulated therein of ſeveral Priviledges to the Inhabitants of that Dutchy, they are, (as ſoon as the Forces under the Command of General Sapieha are marched out of Lithuania) to lay down their Arms, and to return to their reſpective Dwellings, and for the future to forbear all Acts of Hoſtility againſt each other, and not to aſſemble under any pretenſe whatſoever, in ſuch a manner as may endanger the publick Peace: And we hear, the Gentlemen of that Country ſhew a good Diſpoſition to Obey theſe Orders, and that ſeveral of them are already returned home; ſo that we hope ſhortly to ſee a final end of the Diviſions, which have of late given ſo much Diſturbance to this Kingdom.

Vienna, Aug. 9. My Lord Paget's Secretary is come hither the 3d time from Adrianople, and the Emperor's Miniſters have been ſeveral times in Conference upon the Buſineſs he was ſent hither about. He brings an Account, That the Grand Signior is willing the Treaty for a Peace be forthwith ſet on foot; and, to that end, Propoſes the Plenipotentiaries on both ſides may meet at ſome convenient place on the Frontiers; which, it's believed, will be agreed to by the Emperor and his Allies, and in all probability a Peace will be concluded between them this Summer. An Envoy is lately arrived here from the King of Poland, who has had Audience of their Imperial Majeſties. The Marquis of Villars, Envoy from France, is likewiſe arrived, and is preparing for his Publick Entry and Audience; And the young Count of Waldſteyn intends in a few days to ſet out for Paris, being ſent with the ſame Character from his Imperial Majeſty to that Court. Several Muſcovites of the Czar's Retinue are gone after him towards Muſcow. The laſt Advices from Hungary ſay, Prince Eugene of Savoy is arrived at the Camp near Veriſmarton, where all the Emperor's Forces are now aſſembled, the Horſe being encamped at Calouſh, the Foot about a League farther; and the Artillery being arrived, they will ſhortly march to Peter-Waradin.

Francfort, Aug. 17. The Elector Palatine parted from Duſſeldorp on the 12th inſtant, on his Journey to the Palatinate; and we hear he will paſs the Rhine this day at Coſtheym, and to morrow will arrive at Weynheim, where he deſigns to make his Reſidence, and great Preparations are making at that place for his Reception. Great quantities of Proviſions and Ammunition have lately been carried to Philipsburg, and the other Places lately Evacuated by the French, for the Service of thoſe Gariſons. They write from Landau, That the Marquis d'Uxelles and the Sieur de Vauban, firſt Ingenier of France, came lately to that Town, and having viſited the Fortifications, and the Ground which lies round it, are gone to do the like at ſeveral other Places in Alſace.

Hamburg, Aug. 19. The Burghers of this City have lately had ſeveral Meetings to conſider of ſome Miſcarriages that have happened in the Adminiſtration of the Publick Revenues, and particularly in the Foreſt belonging to this City, which having been viſited by ſome Commiſſioners appointed for that purpoſe, they found, that above 300 great Timber-Trees were wanting, of which having made their Report, the Burghers ordered the Overſeers of the ſaid Foreſt to be Summoned before them; who not being able to give any Account how theſe Trees were diſpoſed of, they laid conſiderable Fines upon them. Count Bond, Ambaſſador of Sweden, arrived here from England, the 9th inſtant, on-Board the Lyme-Frigat, Commanded by Captain Nicholas Tavagnan, and in a day or two his Excellency will purſue his Journey to Sweden. They write from Copenhagen, That the King of Denmark is much Indiſpoſed.

Bruſſels, Aug. 21. Several Conferences have been held at this Court about Regulating the Forces, which are deſigned to be kept on foot in time of Peace for the Defence of the Spaniſh Netherlands; and it is much talked, that the Payment of them will be left to the States of the ſeveral Provinces, who will oblige themſelves each to maintain their own Quota. We have lately had very unſeaſonable weather, and they write from Luxembourg, that a great quantity of Snow fell there on the 12th inſtant.

Loo, Auguſt 21. Prince Gaſton, Second Son to the Great Duke of Tuſcany, who Travels incognito, under the Name of Count of Sienne, came laſt Tueſday from Germany to Appledoorne, a ſmall Village within a Mile of this place. Yeſterday he waited upon His Majeſty, one of His Majeſty's Coaches being ſent to bring him to Court, where he was introduced into His Majeſty's Preſence by the Earl of Portland; and this morning he went for Holland. The Prince of Naſſau-Saarbruck, and the Count d'Auvergne continue ſtill at this place. Yeſterday the Earl of Selkirke, having a Power from the Dutcheſs of Hamilton, ſurrendred to His Majeſty her Grace's Honour and Title to the Dutchy
